DARTMOUTH NEWS/EVENTS

1. D-GALA Board Nominations

INTERESTED IN MORE OF A LEADERSHIP ROLE? Four seats are available on D-GALA's Board of Directors. Interested in applying? It's easy!

Send a current resume and cover letter letting us know the following:

- (a) why you would like to be on the Board of Directors, and
- (b) what skills/talents you can contribute to both the Board and the D-GALA membership

OR nominate someone you know to the Board by sending us their name.

Have more questions about the process? Worried that a seat on the Board requires too much time? We need committee chairs and volunteers too!

Send questions, nominations, and/or applications to David Eichman '82 at dme4law@sbcglobal.net.

Completed applications must be received by Friday, January 14, 2005.

2. "No Sleep 'Til Brooklyn"

Brendan Connell '87 (Ft. Greene), Steve Cosson '90 (Ft. Greene), Chris Hogan '90 (Bushwick), and Rob Miotke '92 (Greenpoint) invite you for drinks at Moe's!

When: Thursday, January 20th

Where: Moe's, 80 Lafayette Avenue (Ft. Greene) at South Portland St., Brooklyn, NY

Time: 7:00pm

Moe's phone number: (718) 797-9536

Directions from Manhattan: Take one of the front cars of the C train to Lafayette Avenue (4th stop in Brooklyn); go up one flight of stairs; exit the Lafayette Avenue station via the "South Oxford Street" (written in tile) stairwell. At the top of the stairs, walk 1 block on South Oxford Street to Lafayette Avenue (the junction of Greene and Fulton Streets is behind you as you walk towards Lafayette Avenue). Take a left on Lafayette Avenue and walk 1 block to Moe's on the corner of Lafayette and South Portland. We will be gathering in the lounge area at the back of Moe's, up a few steps from the bar.

Questions? Contact Garrett Hornsby at garrett@garretthornsby.com

3. "We'll always have Manhattan!" Here's looking at you!:

Join us for drinks at the home of Robert (Bob) Cohn '66 in the magical Gramercy Park neighborhood.

When: Thursday, February 24th

Where: 44 Gramercy Park North, Apt. 16-B, NYC

Time: 6:30PM

Questions? Contact Garrett Hornsby at garrett@garretthornsby.com

4. "Its Uptown all the way!"

Erik Ochsner '93 invites you to discover an uptown gem... A nonprofit restaurant!

When: Thursday, March 24th

Where: New Leaf Cafe, take A train to 190th Street

Time: Appetizers and drinks 7:30pm, jazz evening starts around 8:30...

The New Leaf Cafe is an enterprise of Bette Midler's New York Restoration Project, a not-for-profit organization working to reclaim, develop and revitalize parks, gardens and public space in New York City. Net proceeds from this restaurant support the New York Restoration Project's on-going work in Fort Tryon Park.

Questions? Contact Garrett Hornsby at garrett@garretthornsby.com

5. Update from Mike Glatze '97

Mike Glatze '97, founder of Young Gay America, wrote to announce the launch of YGA magazine, a new glossy publication for lesbian, gay, bi, queer, and straight-allied teens/twenty-somethings. Mike, the magazine's editor, said, "We want YGA to be the magazine that young gay people can take home to their parents and say, 'Hey. This is me. I'm OK. I'm awesome.'... It's a good magazine."

YGA is sold on specialty newsstands and some chain bookstores. Subscriptions are available for ordering at the magazine's website www.ygamag.com and copies are sent in unmarked envelopes for people in the closet.

6. Update from Brad Agry '76

Brad Agry '76 writes, "I wanted to alert you to my first published piece which details the loss of my mother four years ago and our special relationship. While I am one of the voices of a number of gay men in this anthology dealing with a parent-child loss, I think the themes are universally applicable to anyone dealing with loss, grief and renewal that ensues."

The piece can be found in "Walking Higher: Gay Men Write About the Deaths of Their Mothers," edited by Alexander Renault.

We are pleased to welcome GLAAD's own Margaret Crisostomo (UCLA '94) at this event. A southern California native (like yours truly), Margaret is one of the incredible forces behind GLAAD's most exciting event of the year, the 16th Annual GLAAD Media Awards, presented by Absolut Vodka. The GLAAD Media Awards raises the lion's share of GLAAD's funds for the year and celebrates ground breaking lgbt images in the media.

As we anticipate significant and potentially groundbreaking developments around LGBT relationships, GLAAD is poised to play a pivotal role in ensuring fair and favorable representation of the LGBT community in the media. We also hope to have one or more of the other women of GLAAD in attendance and may even have a well-known special guest, so don't miss this event!

For more information about the event, visit GLAAD's website at <http://www.glaad.org/events/mediaawards/>
