WHERE: Zimmerman Lounge, Blunt

Association of Alumni Special Meeting

WHEN: Feb. 12, 2006, 11:00 a.m.

WHERE: Spaulding Auditorium

The newly-elected executive committee of the Dartmouth College Association of Alumni will hold a special meeting on Sunday, February 12, in Hanover(Club and Affiliated Groups Officers Weekend). The meeting will allow alumni to consider and vote on an amendment to the existing alumni constitution that would open that constitutional amendment process to all-media voting. According to the existing guidelines, alumni must be present to vote. This amendment would also modify the size of the majority required to pass future amendments.

To read the proposed amendment, visit:

<http://alumni.dartmouth.edu/leadership/association/index.html> or contact Patricia Fisher at (603) 646-3929.

D-GALA supports the proposed amendment. For more information, contact David Eichman '82 at dme4law@sbcglobal.net or Trevor Burgess '94 at trb72@aol.com

2. Dartmouth Women's Basketball at Brown Providence, Rhode Island

Celebrate April Fool's Magic at the Brooklyn Children's Museum! Lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender families and their friends are invited to join us for a private Museum party. Explore the exhibits, meet friends, enjoy a light dinner, and see strolling magician Nicholas Blumm. Museum members are eligible to win exciting raffle prizes including four tickets to the New York City Gay Men's Chorus!

Parents and their children can enjoy the Museum's interactive science and cultural exhibits, our current visiting exhibit Joshua's Journey: the story of a Black cowboy, as well as refreshments and entertainment.

The Brooklyn Children's Museum has been an important presence in the Crown Heights community for more than 100 years. The Museum is dedicated to promoting hands-on learning adventures in natural science and world culture, serving a diverse population of more than 250,000 visitors each year. Recognizing that there is no typical family structure, the Museum would like to provide support for all different kinds of families.

This event is being sponsored by: Gay Parent Magazine, and FFR/Princeton BTGALA.
