2. SAVE THE DATE: NY D-GALA visits Boston D-GALA Boston, MA

WHEN: April 22 (evening) and 23 (brunch)

Hey gang, it is time for a road trip! Our Boston brothers and sisters have invited us to join them for a weekend in Bean-town. Pack your bags and lets hit the road. Below is a tentative schedule.

We are pulling the details together and will communicate more in the coming weeks.

3. New D-GALA Email Discussion List

In addition to this e-newsletter, D-GALA is introducing new email-list support at lists.dgala.org . This setup will support lists for two-way communications or announcements among D-GALA members, from the worldwide membership to local subgroups to individual projects and ad hoc committees.

You will each shortly receive a message inviting you to accept a subscription to the all-members discussion list, dgala-members@lists.dgala.org. You can accept the invitation by email or by clicking on a web link. (We're doing it this way to satisfy legal requirements for confirmed subscriptions.)

Once your request is accepted, you'll also receive information explaining how to:

- change your subscription from receipt of individual messages to a daily digest
- turn off mail delivery for vacation

We will also shortly send out information about how local groups and working groups can set up their own lists @ lists.dgala.org.

lists.dgala.org is not hosted by Dartmouth College. It is hosted by Online Policy Group, the non-profit Internet service provider that hosts the QueerNet Project (which I founded) as well as many other non-profit groups and projects.

In the future, we will also be looking at options of adding web-based communications tools to supplement these new email resources.

Please contact dgala@rogerklorese.com with any questions.

4. Announcing the New D-GALA/Dartmouth College Fund Scholars Program

You should all have recently received in the mail a letter from the Dartmouth College fund announcing the kick-off of the D-GALA/Dartmouth College Fund Scholars Program.

Every dollar we as a group give to the Dartmouth College Fund this year will go to funding new scholarships for GLBT students.

Contributions to the Dartmouth College Fund can be made online at www.dartmouthcollegefund.org.

For more information, contact Trevor Burgess '94 at trb72@aol.com

If you did not receive the letter, you may not be on the D-GALA mailing list. To subscribe, send us your contact info at dartgala@gmail.com
