WHERE: Fashion 40, in the Loft upstairs

202 West 40th Street, New York, NY

Fashion 40 is on 40th Street, just west of 7th Avenue

COST: No Cover, Cash bar

For the first time, we're doing an event especially for both our black and African American alumni as well as our Latino and Hispanic alumni.

For this event, we welcome all LGBT alumni and students from the Ivy League and Seven Sisters Schools, as well as our friends from NYU, UVA, Duke, Georgetown, Williams and Stanford.... In particular we invite our African American and black LGBT alumni, our Latino and Hispanic alumni, as well as their friends and partners. We thank our hosts FFR/Princeton BTGALA's Shawn Cows, Gary King of FFR/Princeton BTGALA and the Association of Black Princeton Alumni (ABPA), ABPA's Kenneth Bruce, Dartmouth GALA's Garrett Hornsby, Harvard GLC's George Byars, Jason McGill of Cornell GALA and the Cornell Black Alumni Association, and Herbert Harriott of the Black Ivy Alumni League and Columbia Pride.

4. Joie De Vine: An Intercollegiate Summer Mixer
Chicago, IL

WHEN: Thursday, July 14, 2005, 7:00PM to 10:00PM

WHERE: Joie De Vine, 1744 W. Balmoral (between North Ravenswood Avenue and North

Paulina Street), Chicago, IL

773-989-6846

As summer rapidly approaches and we shed the remnants of Chicago's fierce winter and spry spring, let us revel in the heat of summer and embrace good times. As we convene in one of many future festivities, dress causal, relax, converse, laugh, smile, mingle and network and escape the trials of the work day. This is an opportunity, I hope, to simply enjoy an evening of great company. There are no great designs or expectations about this Mixer, just the chance to meet new people and possibly spend some time with friends.

Originally planned as a Dartmouth GALA event, but our alumni numbers are rather small in the Chicago and surrounding areas. This is an open invite to all of the Ivy League and Seven Sisters schools, alumni of Northwestern, Vanderbilt, Duke, Stanford, Chicago and any person so inclined to enjoy a wonderful evening.

For more information, contact Susi Kandel '00 at susi@alum.dartmouth.org

5. An LGBT Family Garden Party Celebrating New Book Co-Authored By Peter Parnell '74
New York, NY

WHEN: Saturday, July 16th, 6:00PM to 8:00PM

WHERE: The Brooklyn Children's Museum, 145 Brooklyn Ave. (at St. Marks Ave.),
Brooklyn, NY 11213

718.735.4400 (<http://www.brooklynkids.org>)

COST: Tickets are $7.00 per person. Refreshments will be served.

RSVP: Please RSVP by July 13th by calling 718.735.4400 x325.

Celebrate summer at the Brooklyn Children's Museum! Lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender families and their friends are invited to join us for an evening garden party. Meet and mingle as you explore the Museum and our new exhibit access/ABILITY. Members are eligible to win exciting raffle prizes!

On hand will be HGLC's Justin Richardson and his life partner and co-author Dartmouth GALA's Peter Parnell to sign copies of their children's book "And Tango Makes Three," a delightful new book about two gay penguins raising a chick.

And Tango Makes Three tells young children (ages 4-8) the completely true story of Tango, the first penguin to have two dads. You may have read in the New York Times last year about Roy and Silo, two male penguins who live in the Central Park Zoo and who made headlines because they courted each other, built a nest together, and most important, longed to hatch a chick. They so wanted a chick that they found a rock that looked like an egg, brought it to their nest, and tried to hatch it. When a sensitive zookeeper realized what they were doing, he slipped a fertilized egg into Roy and Silo's nest. The result was their daughter, Tango, whom they raised like any other penguin couple, making them the first "gay" family at the zoo.

Told in a gentle style with softly colored illustrations, And Tango Makes Three is a story that demonstrates the value of family love in any form.

Justin Richardson, M.D. is an assistant professor of psychiatry at Columbia and Cornell and the co-author of Everything You Never Wanted Your Kids to Know About Sex (But Were Afraid They'd Ask) (Crown, 2003). His advice to parents has been featured in The New York Times and on The Today Show, 20/20, Good Morning America, and NPR's Morning Edition. Justin graduated from Harvard and is a member of the Harvard Gay and Lesbian Caucus.

Peter Parnell is a playwright whose most recent play QED was produced on Broadway. He has written extensively for television as a producer for both The West Wing and The Guardian. For children he wrote several episodes of Maurice Sendak's series Little Bear. Peter graduated from Dartmouth and is a member of Dartmouth GALA.

6. Update from David Eichman '82

David Eichman '82 has been elected President of the West Hollywood Chamber of Commerce. The WeHo Chamber is comprised of almost 600 businesses in and around West Hollywood, including many LGBT businesses and individuals. David previously served as Treasurer of the WeHo Chamber and he continues to serve on its Board of Directors. For more information about the WeHo Chamber, please visit www.wehochamber.com.

7. Don't Forget the DCF!

June 30 is this year's deadline for the Dartmouth College Fund. Giving even $10 will help our participation numbers (and your class gets credit too). Help us to show our pride. Nothing special needed to have your gift count in DGALA's favor.

WHERE: XES, 157 West 24th St (near 7th Avenue), New York, NY
212-604-0212

COST: No Cover, Cash bar

Join the gorgeous cast, see clips from the movie and hear live music performances from the new gay film SLUTTY SUMMER, the fun, sexy, modern-day romantic comedy which is like a mix between a gay version of Bridget Jones and Sex & The City. SLUTTY SUMMER opens at Cinema Village (12th St. near 5th Ave.) on Friday, June 10th. For more information about the film, visit their website at <http://www.sluttysummer.com>

There will be 2-4-1 drinks to 9PM and T-shirts and tickets give-away. Adam Joseph and Ari Gold will be performing their songs from the soundtrack.

We invite gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgendered men and women alums from the Ivy League and Seven Sisters schools, Stanford, UVA, NYU, Georgetown, Northwestern, and our friends from other schools to join in. We thank our host, Wharton Out for Business' Steve Deitsch. Steve and his company ReVerberate! Marketing Communications are doing the public relations for the film.

10. An LGBT Intercollegiate Alumni Mixer
San Francisco, CA

WHEN: Wednesday, June 15, 2005, 7:00pm to 9:00pm
WHERE: VinoVenue, 686 Mission Street, San Francisco, CA
(415) 341-1930
COST: No Cover, Cash wine bar

VinoVenue is The Place To Taste and experience wine. Tasting room, retail shop and wine lounge all wrapped up in one! (And it is San Francisco's only Lesbian-owned wine bar!)

More than 100 wines from California and around the world are featured. Carefully chosen by the owners and staff members with an emphasis on small production, family-owned, high quality wines at varying price points.

VinoVenue stretches the traditional wine bar and retail store boundaries by offering guests an exciting new concept for tasting and buying wines. For the first time, guests can serve themselves by purchasing a VinoVenue tasting card (like a debit card), inserting it into the automated wine tasting stations, selecting a wine and receiving a 1 oz. pour. Individually priced pours of more than 100 wines sourced from wineries around the globe range from $1 to $28.

We welcome lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgendered alumni from the Ivy League and Seven Sisters schools, Stanford, and UC Berkeley as well as their partners and friends! Thanks to our host Charlie Rose of Stanford Pride.
