8. Reaching Out MBA Conference

Chicago, IL

The Reaching Out MBA Conference promotes the education, visibility, and networking capabilities of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender business leaders in the United States and around the globe. Since 1999, the Reaching Out LGBT MBA Student Conference has hosted an annual conference to provide a forum for students, recent alumni and business leaders to share information, build networks and promote cooperation. It's being held in Chicago and is organized by Kellogg, Tuck, and the University of Chicago. It's a great opportunity to get face time with recruiters in a more personal setting (only about 500 people will be there) over 2-3 days, as well meet like minded students.

The website for information and registration is:<http://www.reachingoutmba.org/chicago05/home.shtml>

Some of the companies sponsoring and recruiting include: Lehman Brothers, BCG, CSFB, Citigroup, Johnson & Johnson, UBS, Home Depot, Intel, Target, Booz Allen, Time

9. The NYU LGBT Alumni Network Presents...An LGBT Intercollegiate Mixer at Cafe Citron

Washington, DC

WHEN: Friday, November 18, 2005, 6:00pm to 9:00pm

10. Garden Train Show and Visit to Poe Cottage

New York, NY

WHEN: Saturday, December 3, 2005, 11 AM to about 4:30 PM

WHERE: New York Botanical Garden; also Edgar Allen Poe's home nearby. We will meet in Manhattan in front of 465 W 23rd Street at 10th Ave, New York, NY.

COST: $80 includes everything. Pay at start of event, or in advance by PayPal at <http://alumni.princeton.edu/~ffr-gala/>

RSVP: Reservations are a MUST. Call David Beaty (973) 672-3735 or E-mail at dcb50@earthlink.net

We will gather in Chelsea in front of 465 W 23rd Street and be whisked by limo-van to the Poe cottage where the poet lived from 1843-1849. This is one of NYC's oldest and most authentically interesting sites. Then we move to the Botanical Garden for a hot special lunch and the Holiday Train Show. This year the show features New York as you have never seen it before - a magical wonderland cityscape with over 100 City landmarks, from the Brooklyn Bridge (over 14 feet long) to Yankee Stadium! You will find yourself in another world.

The NY Botanical Garden is one of the world's greatest gardens, its Conservatory a Victorian Crystal Palace. Permanent exhibits include the Demonstration Garden, the Orchid Terrarium, Herb and Rose Garden, and much, much more. The Plant and Gift Shop can ease your gift-giving angst.

Don't miss this opportunity to start your Holiday Season in a truly unusual, delightful way that will lift your spirits. We expect to be back in Chelsea in plenty of time for evening activities.

All are welcome BUT space is limited. Reserve NOW.

11. Winter Soiree to benefit Lambert House Seattle, WA

WHEN: Sunday, December 4, 2005, 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM

WHERE: 1221 Federal Ave. E., Seattle, WA, Phone 206-709-0759

COST: Free. However, please bring you checkbooks as donations will be accepted on behalf of Lambert House, a Seattle non-profit organization that benefits LGBT youth. A silent auction will be taking place at the event.

RSVP: Requested - Email winter_soiree_rsvp@yahoo.com

Please join us for a soiree to meet, mingle, and help raise funds and awareness for a great, local non-profit organization, Lambert House (<http://www.lamberthouse.org>), that creates a safe space for LGBT oriented youth in the Seattle area. All LGBT Ivy-league alumni and their friends are invited to attend. The requested dress code is business casual. For more information and to RSVP, please email winter_soiree_rsvp@yahoo.com

12. An Intercollegiate LGBT Mixer San Francisco, CA

WHEN: Wednesday, December 21, 2005, 7:00pm to 9:00pm

WHERE: Whiskey Lounge (Upstairs at Red Grill), 4063 18th St (at Castro),

415-255-2733

COST: No Cover, Cash bar

Join us for a festive drink before the holidays in the Castro's cosiest and clubbiest bar. Upstairs from the Red Grill restaurant, the Whiskey Lounge sports the look of an inviting English-manor drawing room, with leather armchairs, books on the walls and the low glow of faux firelight.

We welcome lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgendered alumni from the Ivy League and Seven Sisters schools, Stanford, and UC Berkeley as well as their partners and friends! Thanks to our host Charlie Rose of Stanford Pride.

13. An All-Ivy LGBT End of Year Bash in Manhattan!
New York, NY

WHEN: Thursday, December 29, 2005 , 8:00pm to 10:00PM

WHERE: XL in the Upstairs Bar, 357 W 16th St (just east of 9th Avenue)

COST: $5 Suggested Donation, Cash Bar, Happy Hour specials until 9PM

RSVP: Requested, but not required.

deep in the heart of Chelsea. As with the last two years, those of you brave enough to lose the slacks get free admission. (Well the boxing day thing was really just a weak excuse anyway...)

FFR/Princeton BTGALA is again hosting and we invite all of our Ivy League, Seven Sisters, Stanford, NYU, Duke, UVA, Georgetown and Williams friends. Alumni, faculty, staff, and students that are over 21 are welcome.

XL is Chelsea's premiere lounge. Downstairs is a great lounge, with tables and chairs (not to mention the aquarium in the bathroom, which has all new fish). Tear yourself away from the downstairs - head upstairs to the bar in the loft, where happy hour will continue until 9pm, and mingle with us while watching the somewhat surreal light show on the ceiling.

We're starting this one up at 8pm and going into the late evening.... Hope to see you there!

14. The Rainbow Fund Volunteer Opportunities

The Rainbow Fund is a gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender and supportive heterosexual humanitarian service agency. Rainbow World Fund's mission is to promote LGBT philanthropy in the area of world humanitarian relief. RWF provides a united voice, a large visible presence, and a structure to deliver LGBT charitable assistance to the larger world community.

Founded in 2000, the Rainbow World Fund works to help people who suffer from hunger, poverty, disease, oppression and war by raising awareness and funds to support existing relief efforts around the world. RWF accomplishes this by working in the LGBT community educating people about world need. Along with raising our community's consciousness, RWF raises funds to support humanitarian relief projects. We partner with international relief agencies to support successful existing projects. By doing extensive research, RWF develops partnerships with the most effective organizations that best reflect our guiding principles: Empowerment, Sustainability, Peacemaking, Measurable Impact and Ecological Awareness.

Currently our work focuses on global HIV/AIDS, water development, landmine eradication, and hunger. RWF currently supports projects in Africa, Asia, Central America and the Caribbean. The Rainbow Fund is also working to provide food, drinking water, and medical care to the victims of Hurricane Katrina.

To find out how to volunteer to help the Rainbow Fund, visit their volunteer page at <http://www.rainbowfund.org/getinvolved/> The Rainbow World Fund is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization and is headquartered in San Francisco, California.
