-----DARTMOUTH NEWS/EVENTS-----

1. Join the DGALA Board of Directors

The fifteen-person DGALA Board has three "classes" of three-year terms, and so there are five open seats on the Board at the start of each calendar year.

If you might be interested in serving on the board, or in some other capacity, please contact Susi Kandel '00 at susi@alum.dartmouth.org or DartGALA@gmail.com.

The deadline for director applications is Monday, January 8th.

2. Widows of Troy - New York, NY

adapted from "The Trojan Women"
by Euripides

The Trojan War has ended, and Queen Hecuba waits in her fallen palace for orders from the victorious Greeks. Their hours left in Troy are running out; Hecuba and her widowed daughters must face the destruction of their royal family and beloved city. Staged in the unique performance space of the Syrup Room, "Widows of Troy" promises a haunting experience of enlivened Greek theater.

6. The Return of our Cocktail Series in Manhattan!
New York, NY

WHEN: Thursday, January 25th, 2007, 6:30 PM to 8:30 PM
WHERE: The Audrey Lounge & Cafe at The W New York - the Tuscany, 120 East 39th Street, between Park Avenue and Lexington
COST: No Cover, Cash Bar & Appetizers

Since the demise of Open in West Chelsea, we've been looking for a great spot to bring back our early evening cocktail series and we've finally found a fitting location! Our cocktail series was our most mixed event, bringing together LGBT men and women of all ages and domiciles for a chance to mingle before the commute home.

Join us as we venture to a new location at the W New York - The Tuscany! The Audrey Lounge & Cafe is a beautiful and intimate space in a quiet corner of Murray Hill that is still just a few short blocks from Grand Central. The management at the W invites us to experience the World of W at the Audrey Lounge & Cafe where there is pride in giving back!

We welcome Ivy League, Seven Sisters, Stanford, NYU, Duke, UVA, Georgetown and Northwestern friends. Alumni, faculty, staff, and students that are over 21 are welcome.
