

OBITUARY ALBERT L. PATTERSON

Albert L. Patterson, a member of the Class of 1951, died on December 25, 2012 in Columbia, South Carolina.

Al grew up in Toledo, Ohio and came to Dartmouth from Western Reserve Academy. He transferred to Vanderbilt University, graduating from there in 1951 with a bachelors degree in psychology.

He served in the U.S. Air Force during the Korean War and was cited for safely landing his crippled C-119 plane in Japan with 40 troops from South Korea on board.

Al's business career included service with Owens Illinois, Inc, where he was general manager of Libbey Glass; Envite Corporation; and McCall Refrigeration, Inc. He later started a personnel recruiting business in Columbia.

He is survived by 3 children, 7 grandchildren and one great grandchild