

Charles Collins 3/6/61

Canton, who were also with him at Tuck after the war.

We extend our deepest sympathy to his wife and family and hope that his two fine sons will follow in the many Dartmouth tradition of their father.

1947

JAMES VINCENT KELLEY was killed on April 17 when his plane crashed into a mountain in Iran in a heavy storm. Jim and four others were on a business trip, having left Houston about a week before the crash. The chartered plane wreckage was found about 150 miles south of Tehran.

Jim was born May 12, 1923 in Bronxville, N. Y., and attended Brookline, Mass., High School.

J. V. received his B.A. degree from Dartmouth in 1947 and for ten years was a geologist with Creole Petroleum Corp. in Venezuela. In 1958 he joined the Union Texas Natural Gas Corp. as senior geologist, Exploration Department, Foreign Operations.

On February 3, 1953 he married Frances Ann Edwards who survives him with their four children, Barbara Jean, Alyson, Bruce and David. Their home is at 5047 Cheena Dr., Houston, Texas. Jim is also survived by his mother, Mrs. James V. Kelley of Brookline, and a sister Jean.

1951

With profound regret we report the death of CHARLES WILLIAM COLLINS JR. on March 6, in the Deaconess Hospital, Boston. He was a victim of long-term diabetes, and death resulted from diabetic complications. A requiem Mass was said at St. Albert's Church in Weymouth, Mass., and burial was in the Mt. Hope Cemetery.

Chuck was born in Arlington, Mass., March 12, 1930. He prepared for Dartmouth at Everett High School where his father, Charles W. Collins '26 is now principal. He had been associated with Devon Service in Boston since graduation, and his home was at 21 Tirrell Street, Weymouth.

Chuck was wholeheartedly a Dartmouth man and will be missed by his many friends. Our deepest sympathy is extended to his wife Barbara, who is the daughter of George L. Cole Jr. '28, and to his three children, Stephen Allen, Catherine Dana, and Lauren Lee.
