

EMERSON CAREY III passed away in Denver, Colo., on May 27, 1978. Known to his many friends as "Duke," he was well known as a member of the varsity golf team and was responsible for a number of team victories. During his school years Duke was a member of Psi Upsilon fraternity and Dragon.

After graduation Duke returned to Denver and a successful career in life insurance. In addition he continued his fine amateur golfing efforts with great success until an arm injury forced him to limit his play.

Duke was married to Joni Summerton and they had two children, Margaret and John. Joni and the family can be reached at 4335 East Third Avenue, Denver, Colo. 80220.

Respected by those who knew him, Duke combined a great sense of humor with quiet strength and humility. He will be missed by his family, friends, and associates.

Dr. TILBERT R. M. GYORGY, 49, died July 18 at his Readfield, Maine, home.

Til was born in Heidelberg, Germany. After graduation from Dartmouth and Harvard Medical School he did his surgical internship and residency at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital. He was the assistant chief of surgery at the Veteran's Administration Hospital at Togus, Maine, for the past ten years. He was a commander in the United States Naval Reserve and served two years at Jacksonville Naval Hospital.

Survivors include his widow Cynthia and sons Mark, 18, and Dean, 11.

1952

On May 5, 1978, 13 days after suffering a heart attack, RAYMOND M. BARKER died at Lakeside Hospital in his home town of Cleveland.

A week after graduation in 1952 Bud went to sea on a Navy fleet tanker out of Newport, R.I. During his two years in the Navy he became a navigator operating in the Atlantic and Mediterranean.

In December of 1952 Bud married Sandra Rittinger, a graduate of Bennett Junior College, and in June of 1954 he and Sandy returned to Cleveland where Bud joined the family business, S. Barker's Sons Company. At the time of his death he was chairman of the board and treasurer.

At Dartmouth he was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity and a sociology major.

Bud's father, Raymond Sr., was Dartmouth '23, his uncle, Robert H. Barker, was Class of '31, and his youngest child, Barbara, is in the Class of '81.

From 1959 to 1962 he served as secretary of the Dartmouth Alumni Association of Cleveland and became president of that group in 1963.

He maintained an active interest in sailing and navigation and was a member of the Vermillion Boat Club in Cleveland.

He was a deacon and former trustee of the Fairmont Presbyterian Church, a director of the Hermit Club, and a member of the Cleveland Skating Club. He also served as a trustee of the University School in Cleveland, from which he had matriculated to Dartmouth in 1948.

He is survived by his widow, three children, his mother, and two brothers.

Classmates were shocked to learn of his untimely

1954

The Honorable Judge HERBERT S. JACOBS died suddenly in his home in Ventnor, N.J., on July 8, 1978. Herb was Atlantic County District Court Judge for 14 years.

A native of Atlantic City, Judge Jacobs was the youngest judge and the second black judge to be appointed in New Jersey. As district court judge, he presided over juvenile and domestic relations court, as well as small claims court. His work in juvenile court earned him the admiration of people throughout the county and the state. Herb was a graduate of Atlantic City High School and he earned his law degree at the New York University School of Law following his graduation from Dartmouth. He was admitted to the New Jersey bar in 1958 and was an assistant U.S. Attorney for New Jersey from 1961 until his Atlantic County appointment in 1964. Herb's distinguished career is attested to by his many colleagues who held him in such high regard.

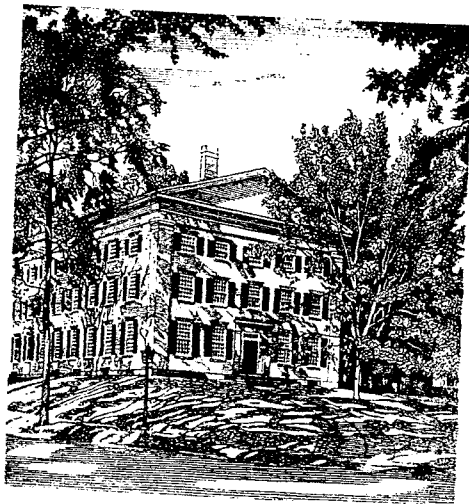

"He was a fine judge who will be sorely missed by the judiciary and on a personal basis," said state Supreme Court Justice Richard J. Hughes, who as governor appointed Jacobs to the county bench in 1964. "I was always very proud of that appointment. We will surely miss this man."

Herb was active outside the courtroom in confronting problems in juvenile justice as chairman of the state Committee for Juvenile Delinquents. He traveled and studied extensively in a constant effort to make the county juvenile system more fair and efficient. He also had been an instructor at judicial colleges in Denver and Reno, Nev. Herb was a distinguished jurist who brought honor to himself, his Class, and his College.

He is survived by his former wife, Ethelyn Harris Jacobs, two daughters, and four sons. The Class offers its condolences to his family.

1973

On August 19, 1978 LAURENCE ALAN SHEPARD died in a fatal automobile accident in Hanover. Alan was a National Merit Scholar from Brunswick, Maine, where he was also editor-in-chief of his school newspaper. At Dartmouth Alan was actively involved with WDCR and was elected to the Alpha Chapter of New Hampshire of Phi Beta Kappa. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Shepard, RFD 1, Brunswick, Maine. Alan was a credit to the Class and will be missed by the Dartmouth community.

10/78

Classified

REAL ESTATE

HANOVER AREA, N.H.-Vt. properties: village, country, land. Albert J. Young, Realtor. Across from the Inn. 1 Olde Nugget Alley, Hanover, N.H. 03755. (603) 643-2272. Leland, Stacy '45, Associate.

CONSIDERING VERMONT PROPERTIES within commuting distance of Hanover? For selective help, contact: Phyllis Ritter ('35), salesperson with Richardson Associates, Inc. "The Real Estate People," Bradford, Vt. 05033. Office (802) 222-4043, home (802) 439-5493.

REAL ESTATE — Land / Residential / Commercial / New Hampshire / Vermont / Robert McLaughry '44, A. B. Gile Co. (603) 643-4540.

VERMONT-NEW HAMPSHIRE — Land, country homes, farms. May we help you? Hilda B. Russell Realty, Inc., Windsor, Vt. 05089. (802) 674-5775.

WATERFRONT LOT NEAR HANOVER plus lot across road. Both for $11,000. Contact owner, (617) 259-9206.

VERMONT. Land, homes, farms, estates; beef cattle. John T. Morgan, Princeton '34. Woodstock, Vt. 05091. (802) 457-2262.

EASTMAN CONTEMPORARY 3-bedroom, 2-bath, cathedral, fireplace, view, near golf, $69,900, (617) 631-4485.

RESTORED SALTWATER FARM. Antique Cape Cod dating back 150 years. Completely modernized and redecorated. Located in the finest of "Down East Maine" — Trescott, on Cobscook Bay. With 55 acres of fields and forest, and over 1400 feet of shore frontage. An excellent value at $125,000. Contact Owner: Pine Tree Holdings, Dept. D, 85 Exchange Street, Portland, Me. 04101. Telephone: (207) 773-2934.

HOME SITE ON SALTWATER for year-round or 4-season enjoyment. Only 10 minutes from Ellsworth, Maine. Just over 4 acres with almost 300 feet of shore frontage. Pretty seasonal stream, woods, and cleared fields. An excellent value at $28,000. Financing available; 20% down. Other choice waterfront lots available. Contact owner: Pine Tree Holdings, Dept. D, 85 Exchange Street, Portland, Me. 04101. Telephone: (207) 773-2934.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES. We have many businesses for sale in the Dartmouth-Lake Sunapee Region. Highview Realty, Claremont, N.H. 03743. (603) 542-7688.

VERMONT STONE FARMHOUSE, exceptional setting. Eight rooms, two baths, fireplace. Good barn. 40 acres. $95,000. Marguerite Remington, broker, Woodstock, Vt. 05091. (802) 457-3733.

DAYTON, OHIO AREA: We specialize in complete relocation service to or from anywhere in U.S. For details contact Bob Conkling, Lee & Sheaffer, Realtors, 4080 Marshall Road, Dayton, 45429. (513) 434-0258 or (513) 293-4157.