

Richard R Horswell Jr
5-26-84

JOIN
US IN 1985

Ned Redpath

COUNTRY GEM, located in picturesque Vershire, Vermont. This stunningly unique 1850 cape home has been architecturally redesigned and totally restored with cathedral ceilings, exposed beams, open stair hall, lots of windows, kitchen with breakfast alcove, two baths, and four bedrooms. Extras include chicken coop (what we all have wanted), tree house, woodstove, and kitchen wood cooking stove. All on 5 +/- acres with lovely views. $79,900.

double lot. House has been well maintained and is in excellent condition. $83,900.

LYME CENTER FARMHOUSE with seven acres of field and woods, located only a short drive or brisk walk to the Dartmouth Skiway. This antique cape has an attached "ell" with country kitchen, pantry, and open porch. The main house offers five bedrooms, full bath, living and dining rooms, plus a three room apartment for caretaker, student, nurse, etc. Extras include wood floors, three woodstove flues, attached woodshed and barn. There is great potential in this offering with many exciting uses. $140,000.

TRADITIONAL POST AND BEAM CAPE on five very private acres and only 3 1/2 miles to Dartmouth Green, Hopkins Center, and the hospital. This custom designed home has a very efficient floor plan with fireplaced formal living room, dining area off open kitchen, separate master bedroom suite, two additional bedrooms and full bath. Plenty of room to expand over the two car garage. Lovely southern exposure with deck and small pond. Hardwood floors, modern appliances, stunning woodwork, and the pleasure of quality construction all add to this offering at $195,000.

CONTEMPORARY CHALET conveniently located in the heart of Norwich, Vermont. This custom built home is perfect for seasonal or year-round living, with an ideal floor plan for family use or entertaining guests. Three bedrooms, two and a half baths, living room with striking stone fireplace, master suite with sauna, three decks, modern kitchen. The one and a half acre lot has lovely views and southern exposure. Below value at $198,000.

Redpath & Co. REALTORS

Musgrove Building/Box 167/Hanover, NH 03755/(603) 643-6406
or toll free # 1-800 525-8910 Ext. 3176

Pam Merrill, Betty Colt, Bob Lamprey, Marlene Foley, Anne Bennett & Dave Vernon '73

Carte graduate... emy and entered Dartmouth in July 1945. He was a member of Theta Delta Chi fraternity. From 1946 to 1948, he served in the United States Navy, before returning to the College for his degree, majoring in art and architecture.

After graduation, he worked for Worthington Corporation and opened his own manufacturer's representative business, Process Sales, Inc., in 1964. He was chairman of the board of directors and resided with Penny in Glenview, Ill. This past spring, he headed the leadership gift program for the class, and although he knew he was fighting prostate cancer, Carter continued to promote Dartmouth to classmate contributors of major amounts.

Cart himself was a gift to our class, his family, and all who knew him. He was predeceased by his grandfather, Herbert L. Trull, a member of the class of 1900, and his father, Carter H. Hoyt Sr., a member of the class of 1922.

1951

RICHARD REDFIELD HORSWELL JR. died May 26 after six and a half months of ill health. He was a resident of Lafayette, Ind.

Dick had practiced internal medicine with the Arnett Clinic in Lafayette since 1961, with a subspecialty in gastroenterology.

At Dartmouth, Dick majored in chemistry and zoology and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He obtained his M.D. degree from Northwestern University Medical School in 1956 and spent two years in Lakeside VA Hospital in Chicago prior to graduating from Duke University in Durham, N.C., in 1958. Dick was a member of the Tippecanoe County Medical Society.

Besides his wife, Cynthia, who was a registered nurse when they were married, Dick is survived by his son, Richard R. III; two daughters, Susan and Tamara; and a brother, John Horswell of Highland, Ill.

JOHN D. SOUTHWORTH died on April 21, 1981, from cancer. He resided in Northbrook, Ill. John was the national merchandise manager of the children's clothing department for Sears, Roebuck and Company, where he had been employed for 31 years. John was also chairman for several years of the North Shore chapter of the American Cancer Society.

John came to Dartmouth from West Lafayette, Ind., where his father founded and ran a landmark bookstore, Southworth's, for over 50 years. It is still a bookstore — now called Follett's. At Dartmouth, John majored in economics and was a member of Dragon and the golf team as well as Sigma Chi fraternity.

After Dartmouth, John went to work for Sears, but then he served in the army during the Korean conflict. John was one of the few survivors of the famous "Pork Chop Hill" fighting in Korea which was later documented in a motion picture. After military service, he rejoined Sears and resided in Northbrook for 25 years.

Besides his wife, Ruth Ann, John is survived by his three sons, Todd, Bill, and John, and a stepbrother, Ray Southworth. Ruth Ann is the co-owner of the Candy Depot in Northbrook, a well-known shop.