

1951. After graduating, he started to practice in Albany and became president of O'Connell and Aronowitz there. In addition to his professional activities, he remained highly active in such Dartmouth matters as the Alumni Fund and served a long stint as secretary of the Alumni Association of Eastern New York. He was also active in civic affairs, was particularly involved in maintaining control over public expenditures, and served on various community and business boards.

Lew leaves two daughters and a son, with whom his classmates share the saddening loss of their father.

1951

JOHN J. BOARDMAN JR. died of a heart attack on June 19 in Walnut Creek, Calif., at the age of 49.

At Dartmouth, John was a sociology major and a member of Phi Kappa Psi and Sphinx. He also played quarterback on the freshman football team, was a varsity skier, and was catcher for the varsity baseball team.

After graduation, he joined the Marine Corps as a second lieutenant. He remained in the Reserve and was a lieutenant colonel at the time of his death.

In 1952, he married Nella Arce, daughter of Dartmouth Professor Emeritus and Mrs. Jose Arce.

Following graduate study at the University of Minnesota, John held several administrative posts in Ohio hospitals until he joined Kaiser-Permanente in 1962.

Except for three years when he served as president of the American Health Advisory Corporation of Philadelphia, John spent his recent career with Kaiser. As an executive vice president of the firm, he gained a national reputation for his expertise in health care.

John was known by his many friends as a person who was unusually devoted to his family. In spite of his career accomplishments, he always found time to enjoy them.

Besides his wife Nella and their son and five daughters, John is survived by his parents and a brother.

1963

JOHN DANIEL SHARPE succumbed to a malicious and virulent form of cancer on April 10 at the age of 37.

John was a member of Theta Delta Chi and of the Dragon Senior Society while at Dartmouth. He took a law degree from the University of Michigan in 1966 and practiced law in Worcester, Mass., as a member of the firm of Mountain, Dearborn & Whiting until shortly before his death. He leaves a brother and sister, his wife Debbie, a 12-year-old daughter, and a 7-year-old son. So much for the stuff of obituaries.

John was possessed of a restless, insatiable intellect. He was an avid reader, and when death finally caught up with him, he was absorbed by the writings of E. B. White. He was intensely curious — but never morbidly so — about even the process of his own death and closely monitored his own symptoms, perhaps with the hope that by understanding them he might conquer them. He never gave himself up to his disease; he did not, and could not, go gently into that good night.

John was also a bit of an iconoclast. He spurned conventional wisdom. He was at once conservative and liberal. He never hesitated to nibble his asparagus from the wrong end. But most of all, John never forgot how to laugh at himself. He had a fine, whimsical sense of humor and a keen appreciation of the absurd. His laughter and his compassion touched the lives of many. His passing leaves a gap not soon, if ever, to be filled.

A substantial number of John's classmates and friends gathered for a memorial service in his hometown of Shrewsbury, Mass., on a beautiful New England spring day.

Edwin A. McCabe '63

Fall Reunions continued from page 84

1954—Woodstock Inn; Friday, reception, 9 p.m., 112 Hanover Inn; Saturday, reception, 4 p.m., Faculty Lounge

1955—Sheraton Inn; Saturday, class meeting, 8 a.m., 112 Hanover Inn; luncheon, Smoyer Lounge, Thompson Arena

1956—Howard Johnson's

1957—Holiday Inn; Saturday, class meeting, 9 a.m., Collis Student Center, Room A; reception & dinner, 6 p.m., Lyme Inn

1959—Holiday Inn

1962—Pleasant View Motel; Saturday, class meeting, 9:30 a.m., 106 Reed Hall

1968—Saturday, class meeting, 10:30 a.m., 101 Bartlett Hall; reception & dinner, 6 p.m., Drake Room, Hopkins Center

1976—Holiday Inn

November 9-10 (Brown)

1958—Sheraton Inn; Saturday, reception & dinner, 6 p.m., Tavern Room, Hanover Inn

1972—Sheraton Inn; Saturday, class meeting, 10:30 a.m., 101 Bartlett

Hall; luncheon, 12 noon, Leverone Field House

Club Events

Dartmouth Club of the Upper Valley—receptions before (11:30 start) and after all home games, Leverone Field House; beer, wine, and set-ups; special class tables can be arranged by writing Howard Hoots '45, Shaker Blvd., Enfield, N.H. 03748; all invited

September 29 (U.N.H.)

Dartmouth Club of the Seacoast Region (Durham)—pre-game reception west of football field, 12 noon to 1:30; refreshments; "look for the big green sign"; all invited

October 13 (Yale)

Dartmouth Club of New Haven—receptions before and after the game in Dartmouth tent; entrance fee of $1 and beer and soft drinks on cash basis; proceeds to club scholarship fund; class and club space can be reserved by calling J. Phillip Smith '74 (203) 865-3101; all invited

Dartmouth Classified

REAL ESTATE

HANOVER AREA, N.H.-Vt. properties: village, country, land. Albert J. Young, Realtor. Across from the Inn. 1 Olde Nugget Alley, Hanover, N.H. 03755. (603) 643-2272. Leland Stacy '45, Associate.

CONSIDERING VERMONT PROPERTIES within commuting distance of Hanover? For selective help, contact: Phyllis Ritter ('35), broker with Richardson Associates, Inc. "The Real Estate People," Bradford, Vt. 05033. Office (802) 222-4043, home (802) 439-5493.

NEW HAMPSHIRE-VERMONT. Residential/Land/Commercial. Robert McLaughry and Associates, 32 Main St., Hanover, N.H. 03755. (603) 643-6400. Robert McLaughry '44, Robert N. Searles '42.

VERMONT-NEW HAMPSHIRE — Land, country homes, farms. May we help you? Hilda B. Russell Realty, Inc., Windsor, Vt. 05089. (802) 674-5775.

WOODSTOCK — Land, homes, farms. John Remington, Norwich '46. Marguerite Remington, broker. 4 The Green, Woodstock, Vt. 05091. (802) 457-3733.

CAPE COD — From Chatham to Provincetown: homes, building sites, acreage, commercial properties. Thomas D. Brown ('51) Associates, Box G, Orleans, Mass. 02653. (617) 255-7500.

EASTMAN LOT. Exceptionally desirable. Backs up on golf course, walk to lake. Principals only. $16,900. Contact Perry Davis '54, 28 Sycamore Lane, Skillman, N. J. 08558. (609) 921-3175.

76 SURVEYED ACRES. Privacy. Class IV road 300 yards to town road, 20 miles to Hanover. Pond sites, views. Small Vermont town. $500 per acre. 5-year terms. G. J. Zeiler, RFD #1, Lebanon, N. H. 03766. (603) 448-1909.

WOODSTOCK, VT. Pond Ridge Motel. 1½ miles west on Rt. 4. 13 quiet attractive units. Tennis, golf-chipping range, picnic area by river. Swimming, horseback riding, fishing, gift shops in area. Reasonably priced. AAA approved. Norman and Priscilla Boynton. Tel. (802) 457-1667.

ST. CROIX, Virgin Islands lot almost an acre, magnificent water view, less than ¼ mile to ocean, 1 mile to superb, unpopulated sand beach, yacht club. Power in. Taxes $117. $14,500 owner. (603) 526-6774.

HANOVER CENTER. Unique blend of old and new. 1762 central chimney house moved from Mass. 3-4 bedrooms, 2½ baths, 2-car garage. Unique and original features including raised paneling, mantels, corner cupboard, stenciling, wide-board floors, butternut kitchen, 3 fireplaces (one with beehive oven). Well insulated. Designed for wood/oil heat. For sale with 30 cleared and wooded acres with excellent view. $165,000. Ray Clark '69, W. Newbury, Vt. 05085. (802) 429-5781.

FOR RENT

ST. MAARTEN: 3-bedroom house on beach. By week, January-April. (914) 723-0809.