

versity of New Hampshire, where he received his Master of Science degree.

During World War II he served in the U.S. Army Air Corps, rising to the rank of captain.

After the war Bob taught at Spaulding High School in Rochester, N.H., and became head of the mathematics department before his retirement in 1984.

He was a member of the Humane Lodge 21 F & AM and of the First United Methodist Church of Rochester. He is survived by two sons, Robert and David, three grandchildren, a brother Charles, and a sister, Barbara Railsback.

1943

James Day Crawford

died last December 26 in the New England Sinai Hospital. He had been semi-comatose, as a result of a serious auto accident in 1986.

Jim entered Dartmouth from Kent High School, Kent, Conn. At Dartmouth he was a member of Gamma Delta Chi. He served as a first lieutenant in the U.S. Air Force.

Jim was with General Electric in New York and Boston for 22 years and then joined Coan Oil of Natick, Mass. He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth, his son Richard, and two granddaughters.

1951

Peter W. Krehbiel

died on December 27 of cardiac arrest at Stamford (Conn.) Hospital. He is survived by his wife, Connie, his brother Harry, his son Kurt, his daughter Karen Keasler, and his stepsons Stephen and Paul Brennan.

At Dartmouth, Pete majored in architecture, was a member of Phi Kappa Psi, and was co-captain of the varsity rowing team. After College, he served as an officer in the navy until 1955.

Following the service, Pete took a law degree from NYU in 1960, and was a member of the New York, Connecticut, and U.S. Patent bar associations. In 1985 he received a master's degree in business administration from Fairfield University.

Pete's business career was varied: he was a credit analyst with Chase Manhattan Bank from 1955-58; sales correspondent for Allied Chemical Corporation until 1960; and joined American Chain & Cable Company in 1964 as its patent and trademark lawyer, becoming its secretary in 1967, its general counsel in 1970, and its senior vice president in 1979.

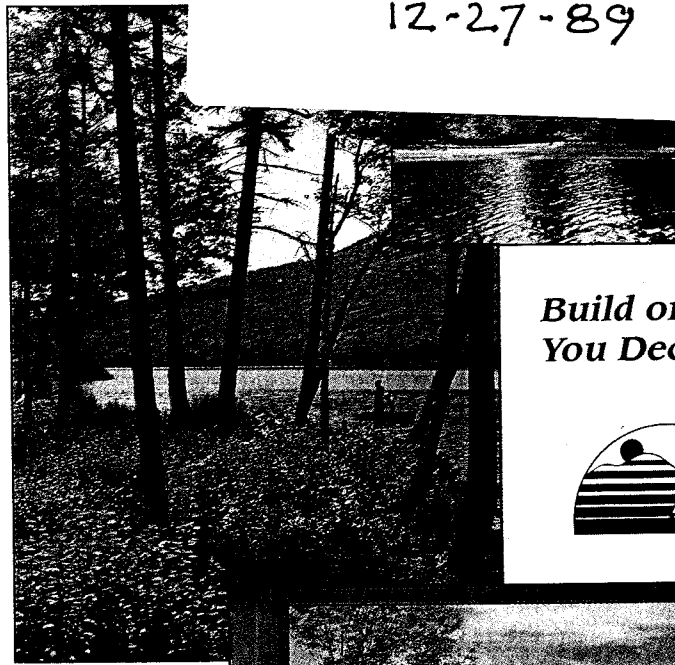

Pete was also active in a variety of civic organizations: United Way, Junior Achievement, Goodwill Industries, Audubon Society, Stamford Center for the Arts, and the William T. Morris Foundation.

1953

George B. Keagle

died November 11, following a long battle with heart disease. George entered Dartmouth after graduation from Homer City High School, Homer City, Pa. He married JoAnn in September 1953 and spent two years in the army. After graduation from

Peter W Krehbiel
12-27-89

Build or Buy
You Decide...

Cacel Realty ... Your Lakefront Specialist

Spacious lots of 2.8-9.77 acres with 100'-500' lake frontage. Finished lot packages that include clearing, driveway, and septic design available. Prices start at $90,000.

Elegantly designed year round 3 bedroom contemporary offers 100' lake frontage, sandy beach, dock, landscaped lot, 2 car garage, new kitchen area, and magnificent views of the lake and mountain.

For a video presentation of these properties call:

603-989-5656

Route 25C, Rural Route 2, Box 207, Pike, New Hampshire 03780.

THE NORWICH INN

a heritage of hospitality and comfort nearly two centuries old

A warm welcome awaits you whether you're here for business, family vacation, or a Dartmouth campus visit.

We're open every day for breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

THE NORWICH INN ♦ MAIN STREET ♦ NORWICH, VT 05055
(802) 649-1143 or for Reservations Toll Free 1-800-882-2989