DAVID CHARLES STUART died suddenly on January 16 in Palm Beach, Fla., where he had been residing temporarily. His home was on Troxel Road in Lansdale, Pa.

Dave was born in Lansdale on July 15, 1927. He was graduated from the local high school, where he was a member of the Student Council and participated in dramatics, publications, the glee club, and sports. Prior to coming to Dartmouth, Dave also attended Episcopal Academy in Merion, Pa., and served 14 months in the Navy, where he attained the rank of Seaman First Class.

At Dartmouth, Dave majored in English drama. He was a member of The Players and the Outing Club and rowed for the J.V. Crew. He was an avid skier both as an undergraduate and in later years.

After graduation Dave's field was travel. During the summers he was a European tour director for the Olson Travel Organization of Chicago. During the winters he was a cruise director for the Cunard Steamship Co. on South American trips.

Dave, who did not marry, is survived by his parents, Robert W. and Abigail Stuart, and by a brother, Robert W. Jr.

RICHARD EDWARD RAPHAEL died suddenly, in a car accident on April 22, near Graham, North Carolina. He was returning from an Easter vacation in the South with a friend, who was also killed in the crash. He lived at 227 Highland Ave., Upper Montclair, N. J.

Dick grew up in Brookline, Mass., and attended Brookline High School before coming to Dartmouth. At the college he was active in the marching and concert bands, and on radio station WDBS, where he was director of classical music programs. After his graduation from the College, and from the Tuck School in 1955, Dick worked in market research for several companies. In 1957 he joined the RCA Victor Service Company in Camden, N. J., and at the time of his death he was the manager of their Electronic Data Processing Service department for budgets and pricing.

His friends will always remember Dick for his sense of humor, his generosity, and his modesty. Those of us who knew him best were aware that this latter quality tended to obscure his genuine gifts of intelligence and sensitivity. His love of music, and especially his keen appreciation of what was fresh and vital in contemporary creation, initiated many of us into new discoveries in this area. Coming at a time when his real talents were beginning to make themselves felt, this accident seems all the more tragic and upsetting.

Dick is survived by his mother and father, and two brothers, all of whom live in Newton, Mass.
