

OBITUARY EARLE S. TYLER, JR.

Earl S. Tyler, Jr. died on June 25, 2013 in his home town of Bangor, Maine. He had served in both Korea and Viet Nam during his 11 years as a fighter pilot in the U.S. Air Force. He is survived by 3 sons, a daughter and 2 grandchildren.

Earle grew up in the greater Boston area and attended the Noble and Greenough School where he captained the basketball and baseball teams. At Dartmouth he was a history major, a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity and a baseball player. He went on to earn a law degree from Boston University.