

Charles S. McAllister
Pelham, NY

Date of Death: 3/23/2004

Charles S. McAllister, Vice President of Eifert, French and Ketchum Insurance Company in Pelham, died on March 23, 2004. He was 66.

Mr. McAllister is the past president of the Dartmouth College Club of New York City and he held several positions with the White Plains Hospital Center Board of Directors, most recently on the Honorary Board. He was a past president and treasurer of the Rotary Club of White Plains.

He is survived by his wife, Patricia; children, Charles S. McAllister III and his wife, Patricia; Bradley H. McAllister and his wife, Stacey; and Mary E. Arcidiacono and her husband, Michael; stepchildren, Kenneth and Michael Bambace; grandchildren, Beth and Tori McAllister; Rebecca, Michael and Bryan Arcidiacono; and Katie, Charlie and Jenna McAllister. In lieu of flowers, donations in his memory can be made to the White Plains Hospital Center or the Rotary Club of White Plains.