

Geoffrey Hands
Minneapolis, MI

Date of Death: 6/25/2009

Geoffrey W. Hands of Minneapolis, Minnesota passed away on June 25, 2009. Geoff came to Dartmouth from The Hill School, Potsdam, Pennsylvania. He followed his father, H. William (Dartmouth '35 and Amos Tuck '36) to Dartmouth and Tuck. Geoff earned an MBA from Tuck in 1960.

A four-year member of The Newman Club, he also participated in varsity soccer and swimming and D.C.A.C through his sophomore year. Initially working for Arthur Anderson, he joined McKinsey and Company where an assignment took his family to reside in Australia. He held a number of senior management positions, including President/CEO of Worthington Turbine International Corporation, Brussels, Belgium.

After corporate life, Geoff turned his avocation of woodworking into a second career of remodeling contractor, which he loved. Retirement led to making heirloom furniture for his children.

Geoff is survived by his wife, Ellie, of 46 years, two children and a sister.
