

Donald W. Polm
Atlantic City, NJ

Date of Death: 12/04/2005

"Donald Polm, formerly of Margate, passed away on December 4, 2005 at the Oceana Rehabilitation and Nursing Center in Cape May Court House following a lengthy illness.

Donald was a graduate of Atlantic City High School and Dartmouth College with a degree in Philosophy. He also attended Stanford Law School. He served honorably in the US Army with the Provost Marshal General detachment. During his work career, Donald worked for I.N.A. Corporation in New York City.

When he returned to Margate, he worked for Atlantic County in a number of positions, the last was developing budgets for the Department of the Aged. Donald was predeceased by his parents, Charles and Frances (Watkins) Polm and his brother Charles Polm.

He is survived by five nieces and their families: Susan Metz of Northfield, Michele Carver of Walkersville, MD, Bonnie Walsh of Great Mills, MD, Debbie Fulghum of Adamstown, MD, and Sandy Polm of Jefferson, MD. He is also survived by his good friend Steven Paul of Ventnor. Services are private and at the convenience of his family. Arrangements by the Gormley Funeral Home LLC, 2706 Atlantic Avenue, Atlantic City"