

Herbert Finch
Newport Beach, CA

Date of Death: 8/10/2006

Herb developed a slight cough last May, received a diagnosis of terminal lung cancer in July and died peacefully in Newport Beach, California on August 10th.

A Phi Kappa Psi, Herb graduated Stanford Law School following Dartmouth and then served in the Navy as legal officer aboard the Bonhomme Richard off Vietnam before entering private practice.

In 1971 he earned an NYU LLM Taxation degree. The balance of his career involved corporate tax policy, first for Stauffer Chemical and then as consultant to major corporations. Herb traveled internationally every year after 1964, visiting over 60 countries including East Germany before the wall went up, Afghanistan and Iran in 1971, Mongolia in 1999-2001, Falkland Islands and Libya in 2005, and Jordan, Syria, and Lebanon in 2006. His final adventure was rafting down the Grand Canyon last May-June.

Herb is survived by his brother, Chic, and second wife, Munktuya (Moogie) Sosorburum of Mongolia.
