* * *

Michael McKenzie died of a heart disease in his sleep on July 4th at his Falls Church VA home . One of the older members of the class, Michael served in Korea as an Army combat engineer prior to attending Dartmouth where he was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon. He later obtained his law degree of George Washington University Law School.

Michael principally practiced immigration law and had his own firm in Arlington, VA. He relaxed by reading extensively and studying history. A happily dedicated Washington Redskins fan, Michael had season tickets every year. His former wife, Haiki Lee, survives him as do sons Timothy and Paul, stepchild Hyuk Kim and four grandchildren.
