Class of 1961 Special Recognition Award

Presented to

Alan A. Rozycki

In the Fall of 1957, you came from Chicago to Hanover and matriculated into Dartmouth College, like your other classmates. By June of 1961, you graduated from Dartmouth College, like your other classmates. However, you were not quite like your other classmates.

While a student at Dartmouth, you excelled in football and earned Academic All-American accolades, All-East, and All-Ivy League regional honors, along with Dartmouth's prestigious Coach Blackman Football Trophy, The Barrett All-Round Achievement Cup, The Charles Milham "Manners Makyth Man" Award, The Alfred E. Watson Trophy, and The Dartmouth Cup. Roz, it's the "Manners Makyth Man" award that perhaps requires some questioning.....

After your junior year you began your fourth year at Dartmouth both as a senior and as a first-year student in the related Dartmouth Medical School (now The Geisel School of Medicine). In 1961 you graduated from the College Magna Cum Laude. After completing medical school with honors and your other medical requirements, eventually you returned to Hanover to practice pediatric medicine and teach in the medical school. Your success at both of these endeavors earned you the title of "professor emeritus" when you retired. You recently received the prestigious 2022 Alumni Award from the Geisel School of Medicine.

Over the decades, your involvement with and commitment to both the College and the Class of '61 has never wavered. As an alumnus, you represented both the College and Dartmouth's medical school on the Alumni Counsel and several years ago became an active member of the Class of '61 executive committee, where you now chair or co-chair two important committees. In addition, your contributions to the various issues brought up before the '61 executive committee are well-researched, well-thought out and well-expressed.

As a result of the aforementioned, the Class of 1961 has selected you to be a recipient of the Class of 1961 Special `Classmate Award.
