April 19, 2014

Marvin Freedman of Santa Monica died peacefully on April 19, concluding a life of integrity, honesty, and great caring for others. The son of Irving and Ruth Freedman, he was born in Omaha on December 2, 1939.

He and Nancy Richards Freedman celebrated their 50th anniversary last year in the company of their children Emily Marcus and Howard Freedman, son-in-law Russell Marcus, daughter-in-law Susan Lyon, and grandchildren Marina and Isidor Marcus and Sabina and Isaac Lyon-Freedman. Marvin's and Nancy's marriage was carried out both at home and at work, and never lost its flame.

Marvin is also survived by sister Marlyne Freedman and brother Sanford Freedman, and by many relatives and friends who have shown great compassion and love during the hard times of the past several years. The funeral was at the Mount Sinai Memorial Park in Los Angeles on April 20. Donations in his memory may be made to Jewish Family Service of Los Angeles or a charity of your choice
