

David Kenison Garratt

Died: April 30, 2005

Dave died at age 66 on Saturday afternoon, April 30, 2005 at his home in Goldsboro, North Carolina, where he had lived for many years.

He was raised in Rye, New Hampshire, and attended Hebron Academy in Maine, where was in the glee club, band, and dramatics club. He played basketball and football there and was on the track team.

Apart from what our classmate Tom Conger reports — that his notes show Dave was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity, no information is available, in The Aegis or elsewhere, concerning Dave's years at the college.

After Dartmouth Dave went into the Marine Corps, then became a psychologist and later a real estate broker. Dave had two sons, Jonathon and Jeffery
