

Laurence Edward Sims

Died: January 20, 2000

Larry died on Thursday, January 20, 2000. He was 61 years old.

He grew up in Little Rock, Arkansas, where he went to Little Rock Central High School. There he was in the honor society, served as a representative to Boys' State, and was on the school newspaper and yearbook. His high school sport was baseball.

There is virtually no information available about his life at Dartmouth and afterwards, apart from the fact he graduated with the class in June 1961. His name appears on the commencement program, but the Aegis contains no entry for him, and the Reunion yearbook for our 25th Reunion in 1986 is likewise silent. The class directory published in 1996 for our 35th Reunion lists a street address for him in the town of Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas and a post office box there as his work address, something spelled and published as "Chamberbood."

No obituary can be found, no classmates have provided information about him, and a reasonable Google search is unproductive.
