

Mini-Reunion Update—Letter 1

Dear ,

Registration is Open for the 2023 Hyflex Mini-Reunion!

The mini-reunion will be on October 6 – 8, 2023, and you can register for the virtual portion, which will be held on Friday, October 6, or the in-person gathering on all three days.

As before, for the virtual portion we will be using the Zoom platform, and there are no fees for attending. To register, click on the Registration or copy and paste in your browser

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

If you plan on coming to Hanover for the weekend, see the registration information below.

Virtual mini-reunion: As mentioned above, the virtual mini-reunion will be on Friday, October 6, from 12:30 Eastern to approximately 5:00 PM Eastern. Note that we're starting an hour later than usual, in order to allow more time for those coming to Hanover that day. As usual, we will have two panels of classmates telling their stories, and the panelists are Al Rozycki, Mike Murphy, Harris McKee, and me (Pete Bleyler). We will also have presentations from Lee Coffin, Vice Provost for Enrollment and Dean of Admissions and Financial Aid, and Karina Madzari, Arts Initiative student awardee.

Dedication of the "Mending Wall" installation by the Robert Frost statue:

Come at 10 AM on Saturday, October 7th when President Sian Beilock joins us to dedicate the magnificent Frost Mending Wall Project. This showcases our unusual leadership by bringing together for its culmination people from the classes of '61, '69, '73, '71, and '78. Alan Rozycki is developing a program for the event.

Complete Schedule for Attendees in Hanover:

Friday, Oct. 6:

- 12:30-5:00: Virtual mini-reunion in the second floor conference room in Blunt Hall (same as last year)
- 6:00: Dinner at the Hanover Inn
