Thomas Boardman McGovern, M.D. of Binghamton, New York, died at home on October 12, 2007. Biology major at Dartmouth, Tom went on to the University of Missouri College of Medicine. After serving as a flight surgeon in the U.S. Air Force, he moved to Binghamton, where he and his wife Jane adopted and raised four children and where, for more than 30 years, he practiced pediatric medicine. At the time of his 25th reunion, Tom wrote, "I have been kept busy not only by my practice but as an instructor to medical students of the clinical campus of Upstate Medical Center" in Syracuse, New York. Tom also served as President of the Departments of Pediatrics at Lourdes Hospital and Binghamton General. His commitment to children was further manifest in volunteer time he contributed to the Handicapped Children's Association. Tom's wife predeceased him in 1999. He leaves two sons and two daughters.
