

James Allan Dull
6/2/1942 - 9/5/2003

James came to Dartmouth from Ottumwa (Iowa) High School. He was valedictorian of his class and participated in numerous extracurricular activities, including band, newspaper, glee club and the drama club. He only spent his freshman year at Dartmouth and graduated from Stanford in 1964 and Yale Law School in 1969. He served in the U.S. Army 1964-66 in the intelligence corps.

He practiced law in Chicago after graduation and then starting in 1975 in Cleveland.