

Thomas Jay Ifeld
1/24/1943 – 8/22/1972 from the Dartmouth Alumni Magazine

The class was saddened to learn that Thomas Jay Ifeld died on August 22, 1972 in Beverly Hills, California from injuries which he sustained in an automobile accident.

Tom majored in history at Dartmouth and served on the staff of the Daily Dartmouth and WDCR. He was active in the Cosmopolitan Club and the Dartmouth Outing Club. As a freshman Tom was a member of the Ski Team. Members of Bait and Bullet, the Yacht Club, and the Dartmouth Film Society will also recall that Tom participated in those groups.

The class extends its deepest sympathies to Tom's family in their time of great loss. We will always carry fond memories of Tom and his contributions to the college.
