

George Gregory Nahill
3/18/1942-10/20/1963

George Gregory Nahill came to Dartmouth from Germantown Academy in Philadelphia, where he was active on the soccer and tennis teams, was in the glee club and drama club, worked on the yearbook, was class president his senior year and graduated cum laude. At Dartmouth he was in the NROTC program, the Glee Club, worked on the Aegis, participated in the drama club and was a brother of Sigma Nu. He was a government major.

George was killed in a senseless automobile accident while he was driving south on route 128 in Massachusetts. Another driver, having missed the turnoff to the Mass Pike was backing up, when the accident occurred.
