

Peter Frederick Wulfing, Jr.

2/25/1942 – 5/28/2012

Peter came to Dartmouth from St. Louis Country Day School and Lawrenceville School where he was on the newspaper staff, a member of the glee club and participated on both the soccer and track teams. At Dartmouth he majored in sociology, was a member of the yacht club and was a brother of DKE.

After Dartmouth he earned an MBA at Columbia University. He joined the Navy and became a translator/interpreter for Russian language material. He presided over St. Louis Gear Company. Many years later a Masters degree in Judicial Administration. He worked as a legal administrator and eventually owned and operated a dry cleaning business.

Peter was an avid reader, student of Civil War history, gardener, and family man. Peter left a wife, Lourdes, and two sons and two daughters from a previous marriage.