

BRUCE J. SENN

Bruce J. Senn of Scotia, New York, died in November 2021 after a brief illness. Born in Niskayuna, N.Y. to Dr. John Senn and Linda Senn, Bruce graduated from Scotia-Glenville High School, where he was active in athletics and school clubs. Bruce had a lifelong love of the outdoors, including skiing, hiking, and sailing-- interests he pursued as a member of the Outing Club, Cabin and Trail, and the Sailing Club. A religion major at Dartmouth, Bruce obtained an MSW in Social Work (1976) and MBA (1980) from Syracuse. He remained involved with Dartmouth as an alumni interviewer and regional club Secretary and led our class 50th reunion hike up Mt. Moosilauke.

Bruce married Irene Zukowski in 1972, with whom he had a son, John. Bruce shared his passion for skiing and sailing with his family. He spent summers at Galway Lake racing sailboats, ski raced, and attended World Cup soccer and Union college hockey games with John. A competitive downhill skier, Bruce also taught skiing for many years. He served as a ski instructor and adaptive ski instructor at Maple Ridge and Windham Mountain.

Bruce worked most of his professional career as a computer systems analyst, including more than 25 years at Union College. He and his family attended Calvary Episcopal Church where he served as Treasurer. Predeceased by his father and his wife Irene, Bruce is survived by his mother, his son John, sister Barbara Bennett, and numerous nieces, nephews, close friends, and loved ones.
