

Dartmouth Hall:

- The pediments of Dartmouth Hall have three dates on them. What are they and what do they signify?
- What political office did John Wentworth hold?
- When was Hanover founded?
- To what does Eleazar's "primitive alcazar"?
- What landmark medical event took place in Reed Hall in 1896?
- How many sections are there in the green?
- How tall is Baker tower?
- Who are the 3 people instrumental to the beginning of Dartmouth?

Baker Library:

- What does a green light illuminated in Baker Tower signify? Name at least eight of the twelve occasions when the "green lantern" in the tower of Baker Library is lit.
- What are the dimensions of the weathervane atop Baker Library, and how high does it stand above campus? What is it made of?
- What is the name of the murals by Jose Clemente Orozco in Baker Library?
- What was the nickname for the Bradley and Gerry buildings north of Baker Library?
- Which president of the College served the longest time in office? Which had the shortest tenure?
- What pattern of clothing distinguishes John Sloan Dickey's oil portrait from other Wheelock successors? Baker – portrait room
- Who is the shiny nosed bust and what is his significance to the College?

Webster Avenue (incl. Webster Cottage):

- What small building occupies the space just north of Gamma Delt on the west side of North Main Street? What is its significance?
- Daniel Webster was a member of which class?
- Where was "the Barn" on fraternity row?
- What is Robert Frost writing as he sits "in a wood"?
- What does the Pendulum which is on display on the first floor of Sherman-Fairchild demonstrate?
- What does the plaque on the outside south wall of the Blunt Alumni Center (originally Crosby Hall), partially hidden by a bush, commemorate?

Bema & Bartlett Tower:

- What sub-species of tree was the "Lone Pine?"
- Men from which Dartmouth classes built Bartlett Tower?

Cemetery:

- Who is buried alongside Eleazar Wheelock?

River:

- How many years did John Ledyard spend at Dartmouth?
- What does it mean to be "up a creek without a Cohearamus?"
- What does the plaque at Ledyard Canoe club commemorate?

Hood/Hopkins:

- In what year did Theodore Geisel (Dr. Seuss) graduate?
- Who is memorialized in the Hop courtyard?
- What infamous sculpture sits between the Hood And Brewster House? Where on campus has it been installed?
- Who is the shiny nosed bust and what is his significance to the College?

Other:

- What was the "North Fayer Dump?"
- Who was the "Wich Man?"
- What Dartmouth alumnus appears on U.S. currency?
- DOC Chubbers gather at "The Rock". Where is it?
- Memorial Field is dedicated to servicemen from which war?
- Doctor Thomas Benton (the DOC's "Doc") is a member of which class? (Hint: His matriculation certificate is posted in "his" bunkhouse at Moosilauke.)
- The DOC House was a gift from which Dartmouth class? (Hint: On a plaque above the patio.)
- The 24-hour hike of the DOC-maintained AT was first done by which Son of Dartmouth? (Hint: His pet vicuna went along, died of exposure, and was turned into a coat)
- How many pairs of animals are on Noah's ark?
- Who holds Dartmouth's record for the one-mile run, with what time? (Hint: Found on a wall, but not in the gym.)

Not to Be Missed Stops on Your Walk

- Map Room in Baker Library
- Bookbinding Studio in Baker Library
- Topographical Map on the second floor of Fairchild Tower
- War Canoe at Ledyard Canoe Club
- Wooten Desk in the Hallway of 1 Rope Ferry Road – Dean of the Medical School
- Vietnam Memorial in the Grand Hall of the Rockefeller Center
- Dartmouth Greenhouse
- Leather Murals in Thayer Dining Hall

Thank you for taking our tour of places you
may have forgotten.

You can find answers to the questions at www.dcu.v.org

Please contribute your own trivia by contacting Caroline at carcannon@yahoo.com

Trivia for a Walking Tour of Dartmouth College

Provided by:

